

Trevignon

$\text{♩} = 80$

Dm Am

I trav - elled down to Trev - ig - non to har - bour full of fish - ing craft The I was young and in my prime, I you should go to Brit - an - y, be

4 Bb C Dm

lose the crowds of Pont A - von, and as I walked in Trev - ig - rock - y shore where sea - gulls laughed. the mark - et where the fish - wives lit - tle thought of song or rhyme, but now the bug has bit - ten sure to wan - der by the sea. And if you chance on Tre - vig -

7 C Bb Am Dm F

non 'Twas there I heard the Sky-lark song! Back in the town where Gau - gin throng and ov - er - head, the Sky-lark song! The li - tle boat we put to me, I sing of pla - ces wild and free. Of pla - ces where the spi - rit non, I know that it will not be long be - fore it haunts your dreams, like

11 Bb Dm C

slaved, a mill - ion tou - rists bold - ly braved the sea, the cre - per - ie when time for tea Some - soars, that bus - y man to soon ig - nores. Such mine, and calls you back for one more time, to 14 Dm C Gm Am

teem - ing shops; but I was gone, to where I heard the Sky - lark how I feel that I be - long here in the port of Tre - vig - pla - ces cast their spell on me like Tre - vig - non down by the lift your gaze at Sky - lark song, and bless the port of Tre - vig -

17 Dm Dm C Gm Am Dm

song!
 non!
 sea.
 non!

The
 When
 If
 to